BULLET LODGES IN ABDOMINAL REGION: TAKEN TO CHICAGO

Progressive Leader Resting Easy at Early Hour This Morning; Gave Address and Shaved Self After Injury; Wound Unnoticed for a Time

CHICAGO, Oct. 15. Colonel Roosevelt arrived in Chicago at 3:30 o'clock this (Tuesday) morning. The colonel was said to be resting calmly. He had experienced no discomfort during the trip from Milwaukee.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15. (3 a. m., Tuesday) Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was shot in the abdominal region shortly before 9 o'clock last night while sitting in his automobile in front of the Gilpatrick house in Milwaukee about to start for the auditorium to deliver his scheduled address. According to latest accounts, the bullet is imbedded in the muscular tissue and the wound is not serious. The attempted assassination and all its accompanying scenes were dramatic in the extreme. The would-be murderer was John Schrank of New York city, a man apparently demented. He was captured and locked up.

Unconscious of his wound, Colonel Roosevelt proceeded to the auditorium, and, when his condition was discovered, in spite of the protest of his physician, he made a stirring address in the subject of his attempted murder. Weak from loss of blood at the conclusion of his speech, he was taken to the Emergency hospital, where, after an examination by physicians, the nature of his wound was ascertained. It was not considered serious enough to compel a stay in Milwaukee, and at 12:50 a. m. he was taken aboard his special train on a slow run to his city.

The colonel announced that he would spend the night on the train, and, after a few hours here, would go on to Indianapolis to fulfill his engagement there. It was expected that he would be left in his car until 6 o'clock. Tentative arrangements were made here to take him to the Presbyterian hospital if it was deemed advisable.

The special train left for this city hotel, and shortly before 8 o'clock he started for the auditorium. His automobile stood in front of the door, and about it was a crowd of general business persons, who were waiting to get a glimpse of the colonel as he started off.

With the colonel were Philip Roosevelt, a young cousin; Mr. Cochems, Mr. Martin and Captain Girard. The crowd pressed close about the colonel and gave a cheer.

As the party reached the automobile, Colonel Roosevelt stood aside and then stepped into the car.

Martin entered directly behind him and sat on the further side of the car,

Roosevelt, however, stood up, waved his hand in answer to the cheers of the crowd. The assassin was standing in the crowd a few feet from the automobile. He pushed his way through the crowd that had gathered at the station, entered an automobile and was driven to the hotel. He took dinner in a private dining room on the main floor with the members of the party in his private car.

After dinner, Colonel Roosevelt went to his room on the second floor of the MILWAUKEE, Oct. 14.—The positive statement that Colonel Roosevelt was injured seriously was made by Dr. Frederick A. Stratton of Milwaukee, one of the physicians who examined the colonel. Dr. Stratton said there was no cause for alarm as to the colonel's condition.

Roosevelt Bulletins

"The wound was a superficial one," said Dr. Stratton. "The bullet is imbedded in the muscular tissue. All that is done at the hospital was to put on an antiseptic dressing."

"If the bullet had reached his lungs, it would have been evident and he could have had a coughing spell."

The X-ray of Colonel Roosevelt's wound shows that the bullet lodged in his chest wall and did not penetrate the lungs. The wound is not considered serious.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14. Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt was attending a musical comedy at the Broadway theater last night at the time the attempt was made upon her husband's life. The news did not reach her husband's side. The news and stampede, apparently being spread on the stage, don't worry. Love to all with a party of friends. In fear that the announcement of the attempted assassination might be made from the stage, as the subject sold to newspapers from the stage, and be all over eastern and western newspapers, she did not speak of the news to anyone.

Perkins, chairman of the executive committee of the national Progressive Federation of business men from Milwaukee, was one among the first to receive the news. He had dispatched a messenger to Mrs. Roosevelt.

Although assurances were given in the first dispatches that the colonel had not been seriously wounded, Mrs. Roosevelt was alarmed and immediately left the theater, driving to the headquarters of the Progressive party.

Here she awaited further details from Milwaukee. She was considerably relieved by the early bulletin reporting that the colonel had been slightly wounded, that he was able to proceed with his speech.

As to how Mrs. Roosevelt had received the news, Mr. Perkins only said: "Just as such a strong woman as Mrs. Roosevelt would receive it."

President Taft Hears of Attack.

President Taft and Governor Wilson were among others to be quickly advised of the attempted assassination of Colonel Roosevelt. The president was at a banquet which Mayor O'Brien was giving tonight to the president, assuring him that he was in no danger. The colonel's condition, which had apparently been disclosed to his husband, had been reported to the president, assuring him that he was in no danger.

The telegram read: "I am now in the American hospital, giving details of the assault, were bought by the thousands."

"DON'T CARE A RAP ABOUT BEING SHOT," SAYS PLUCKY VICTIM

Roosevelt Tells Milwaukee Audience That A Leader Should be Doing His Duty Instead of Fearing for Own Safety; Country Sole Care

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 14.—"I do not care a rap about being shot, not a rap," said Colonel Roosevelt in his speech tonight.

"Friends," he began, "I shall have to ask you to be as quiet as possible. I do not know whether you fully understand that I have just been shot, but it takes more than that to kill a bull moose. But, fortunately, I had my manuscript" (holding up manuscript, showing audience where bullet had gone through), "so you see I was going to make a long speech. And, friends, the hole is in it that the bullet went through, and it probably saved it from going into my heart. The bullet is in me now, so that I cannot make a long speech. But I will try my best.

"And now, friends, I want to take advantage of this incident to say as solemn a word of warning as I know how to my fellow Americans. First of all, I want to say this about myself. I have altogether too many important things to think of to pay any heed or feel any concern over my own death. Now, I would not speak to you insincerely within five minutes of being shot. I am telling you the literal truth when I say that my concern is for many other things. It is not in the least for my own life.

"I want you to understand that I am ahead of the game anyway. No man has had a happier life than I have had. I am going to show you what Colonel Roosevelt did when he unbuttoned his coat and vest and showed his white shirt body stained with blood. Now, friends, I am going to be as quiet as possible even if I am not able to give the challenge of the Bull Moose quite as loudly. Now, I do not know who he was or what party he represented. He was a coward. He stood in the darkness by the crowd around the automobile and when they cheered me and I got up to say, he stepped forward and shot me in the brain."

"It was just as when I was colonel of my regiment, I always felt that a private was to be excused for feeling at times some pangs of anxiety about his personal safety, but I cannot understand a man fit to be colonel who can pay any heed to his personal safety when he is occupied as he ought to be doing his duty.

"I am in this cause with all whole heart and soul; I believe in the Progressive movement, a movement for the betterment of mankind, the movement for making life a little easier for all our people, a movement to try to take the burdens off the man and especially the woman in this country who is most oppressed. I am absorbed in the success of that movement. I feel uncommonly proud in belonging to that movement.

"Friends, I ask you now this evening to accept what I am saying as absolute truth when I tell you I am not thinking of my own success. I am not thinking of my life or of anything connected with me personally. I am saying this by way of introduction because I want to say something very serious to our people and especially to the newspapers.

"Now, I wish to say seriously to the speakers and to the newspapers representing both the Republican and Democratic and Socialist parties that they cannot, month in and month out, year in and year out, make the kind of slanderous, bitter and malevolent assaults that they have made and not expect that brutal and violent characters, especially when the brutality is accompanied by a not too strong mind, they cannot expect that such natures will be unaffected by it.

"I am not speaking for myself at all; I am speaking for the country. I do not care a rap about being shot, not a rap. I have

News of Attempted Assassination Spreads Like Wildfire Throughout Nation; Profound Sympathy for Victim Universally Expressed

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt was attending a musical comedy at the Broadway theater last night at the time the attempt was made upon her husband's life. The news was broken to her as she sat in a box with a party of friends. In view of the announcement of the attempted assassination mind is made that the stage and be an unnecessary great shock to the colonel's wife, George W. Perkins, chairman of the executive committee of the national Progressive party, who was anxious to receive the news, had dispatched a messenger to Mrs. Roosevelt.

Although assurances were given in the first dispatches that the colonel had not been seriously wounded, Mrs. Roosevelt was alarmed and immediately left the theater, driving to the headquarters of the Progressive party.

Here she awaited further details from Milwaukee. She was considerably relieved by the early bulletings reporting that the colonel had been slightly wounded that he was able to proceed with his speech.

As to how Mrs. Roosevelt had received the news, Mr. Perkins only said: "Just as such a strong woman as Mrs. Roosevelt would receive it."

President Taft Hears of Attack. President Taft and Governor Wilson were among others to be quickly advised of the attempted assassination of Colonel Roosevelt. The president was at a banquet which Mayor Gaynor was giving tonight to the members of his cabinet, 600 naval officers, and several distinguished citizens, when the news was communicated to him. It was evident that the report fell upon the president's ears as a great blow. He was talking with vital and I think they will find it somewhat easier to learn of the news than the injury the boy received. My son is holding out well and I will give an assurance that he will recover.

Later, as the news was confirmed, the president said to newspaper men: "I am very sorry to learn of the assault upon Colonel Roosevelt, and I am glad to learn of his harm done."

At the time the president made this statement bulletins from Milwaukee gave the assurance that Colonel Roosevelt had sustained practically no injury. The speakers at the dinner advised reporters to the reporters that the news had soon spread to all and there was so much discussion of the reports that little attention was given to the speeches.

Governor Wilson was at his home at Princeton, N. J., when newspaper men advised him of the attempt to kill the Progressive candidate for president.

Wilson is Distressed. "It is with the greatest distress that I hear this," said Governor Wilson, "but I rejoice that Colonel Roosevelt apparently has escaped serious injury."

Colonel Roosevelt's son, Theodore, Jr., heard of the attack on his father tonight and hurried to Progressive headquarters to meet his mother and away details from Milwaukee.

Shortly after midnight Mrs. Roosevelt received a telegram which had evidently been dictated by her husband, assuring her that he was in no danger and making light of the attempt on his life.

The telegram read: "I am now in the American hospital."

The bullet did not strike anything bought by the thousands."

PEOPLE CRY "LYNCH HIM! LYNCH HIM!"

"Here he is," said Martin. "Look at him, colonel."

All this happened within a few seconds, and Colonel Roosevelt stood gazing rather curiously at the man who had attempted his life before the stunned crowd realized what was going on.

I have been able to do certain things that I greatly wished to do, and I am interested in doing other things. I can tell you with absolute truthfulness that I am very much interested in whether I am shot or not.

PUT LID ON IN DENVER DURING CARNIVAL WEEK

DENVER, Oct. 14.—Regardless of the recent decision of the state supreme court in granting a writ of supersedeas in the so-called liquor cases, President A. A. Blakely of the fire and police board announced today that the laws governing the sale of liquor in eating and hotels on Sunday and after midnight will be enforced. Blakely holds that the police must enforce the law while it is on the statute books. This is taken to mean that the lid will be tight during carnival week.

Eugenics Rob Heart; Brings No Happiness, Says Dr. Anna Bloomer

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—"Marriages resulting from an exhaustive study of the laws of eugenics will bring about profound unhappiness in the home."

"When men and women reach the stage where they will enter into the bonds of matrimony, principally along scientific lines, rest assured love will fly out of the window."

"There isn't any blood in the aristocrats that is not tainted."

"Practical eugenics can do nothing toward raising the race standard."

"The idea set forth is a splendid one, but thoroughly impracticable."

This is what Dr. Anna Bloomer, a New York specialist in diseases of women and children, of 208 West Ninety-second street, had to say today when asked to comment on the views of Dr. Vernon M. Cady, who believes that the real "Who's Who in America," according to the laws of eugenics in being compiled at the eugenics records' office at Cold Springs Harbor, New York.

"If human beings could be raised like animals, then I would say that the study of eugenics would bring about good marriages," continued Dr. Bloomer. "The offspring of a couple who have exercised discretion, and who have examined the mental and physical conditions which surrounded our forefathers will naturally be a genius, but how many men and women, who love one another devotedly would permit the faults of their ancestors to stand between them and happiness in this world?"

Eugenics Will Rob Heart.

"It is safe to say that a manly man would marry his choice, and disregard the remarks made by Dr. Cady. Where can one find a man possessed of sound physique and high mentality? There are exceptions, but very few. Brains and brawn seldom travel hand in hand, and therefore I say Dr. Cady's plan is impracticable."

"Can we afford to rob the heart of every consideration? If so, then practical eugenics will in time breed a line of geniuses for our country. No doubt Dr. Cady based his remarks on statistics, but we must remember how many misrepresentations are made by the public at large when the question of hereditary disease in past generations is discussed."

Happiness in the home should be the first consideration of every couple contemplating marriage. To a certain extent hereditary conditions cannot be avoided. Notwithstanding the fact that a man's ancestors were possessed with high ideals, probably some member of that family contracted a disease through dissipation of some sort. Suppose he was the father of a girl, the picture of health. Do you consider it fair for the man of her choice to rob her of the happiness she so eagerly looks forward to? I think not."

Nearly one-fourth of the boys and girls who enter the American public schools reach the high school. This, too, when the work of the school of today is almost as advanced as that of the college of a few years ago.

POWERS ASK TURKEY TO MAKE REFORMS

Demand That Christians Be Admitted to Freedom and Consideration

PARIS, Oct. 14.—Turkey's promises of reforms have remained a dead letter, say the Balkan allies, according to a synopsis of the reply to the representations of the powers, which was given today in a semi-official note. Therefore, the Balkan states believe it is their duty to ask the Ottoman government directly to make the solemn engagements contained in the note attached by the allies.

They ask Turkey to grant without delay the following reforms and to promise to apply them within six months with the assistance of the great powers and the Balkan states.

The division of the provinces of European Turkey into ethnical circumscriptions.

The naming of Belgian or Swiss Christian governors.

The equality of schools of whatever faith.

The equality of representation in the Turkish parliament.

The admission of Christians into every branch of administration of empire.

The formation of Christian military divisions.

The reforms to be put into execution by a commission of Christians and Mussulmans under the auspices of representatives of the powers.

The enumeration of the reforms is preceded by a demand that Turkey demobilize the army.

SUPREME COURT DECIDES BOND ISSUE IS INVALID

DENVER, Oct. 14.—By refusing a rehearing in the Aurora bond suit case, the state court of appeals decided today that $85,000 of the $150,000 bond issue is invalid and that the taxpayers shall not be required to pay this amount. The suit dates back 14 years, when the present town of Aurora, then known as the town of Fletcher, issued the bonds for the purpose of constructing a water plant. The plant was built but never became serviceable. The bonds were taken up by Louis A. Hayden and several others, including Amy Hunt Chiles.

Thirteen years ago litigation was started by the bondholders to secure payment. William A. Bryans, at present assistant city attorney of Denver, was engaged to conduct the case in behalf of the town of Aurora, and recently the court of appeals handed down an opinion invalidating $85,000 of the bonds.

A case involving the balance of the issue is pending in the United States circuit court of appeals.

DON'T CARE

had a good many experiences in my time and this is only one of them. What I do care for is my country. I wish I were able to impress on our people the duty to feel strongly, but to speak truthfully of their opponents.

"I say now I have never said on the stump one word against any opponent that I would not defend in the library. I have said nothing that I could not substantiate and nothing I ought not to have said, nothing that, looking back, I would not say again. I am all right."

After Colonel Roosevelt had referred to that portion of his speech in which he referred to his injury, he turned to a remote figure of the campaign and spoke as though he were making one of the addresses which are a matter of daily routine with him. When he had finished, he turned to Terrell and said:

"How long have I been speaking?"

"Three-quarters of an hour," said the doctor, smiling and laughing.

"Well," said the colonel, with a smile, "I'll give you a quarter of an hour more."

AMERICANS BEING HELD FOR RANSOM

Demand Money, or Hostages Will Pay Price With Lives Is Request of Rebels

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 14.—Two Americans are being held for heavy ransom by Mexican rebels. John T. Cameron, El Paso stock broker, removed from the Mexico-Northwestern train held up yesterday by rebels, is held for $15,000 ransom. Arthur McCormick, foreman of the Palomas Land and Cattle company ranch, also is held for ransom on the American ranch property.

The money or the hostage's death, is the rebels' warning in both cases.

President Taft tonight telegraphed Mrs. Cameron here assurances that all possible would be done to rescue her husband. Cameron is a wealthy stockman, and was on his way to Mexico to buy cattle for importation.

Five thousand dollars was sent from an El Paso bank to Bachata, N. M., today, to apply on the ransom. From that point the money will be transported by a courier to the rebels, 50 miles to the south.

Reorganize Troops.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Oct. 14.—A general reorganization of federal troops in the north of Mexico is under way, it is said, as a result of sensational allegations of a month ago. It was learned that General Augustin Sanjines, commander of federals operating out of Agua Prieta, in Sonora, below this point, has been recalled. Ill health is given as the reason. General Manuel Gil is on his way from Mexico City to supersede him.

Removal of General Sanjines makes the third similar case in the last few weeks. General Huerta, commander of the entire northern zone, first was removed, failing exsight being given as the cause. Next General Babago, operating in the Casas Grandes district, under Huerta's orders, departed for Mexico City. General Sanjines was also of Huerta's original command.

Eugenics Rob Heart, Brings No Happiness, Says Dr. Anna Bloomer

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—"Marriages resulting from an exhaustive study of the laws of eugenics will bring about profound unhappiness in the home."

"When men and women reach the stage where they will enter into the bonds of matrimony, principally along scientific lines, rest assured love will fly out of the window."

"There isn't any blood in the aristocrats that is not tainted."

"Practical eugenics can do nothing toward raising the race standard."

"The idea set forth is a splendid one, but thoroughly impracticable."

This is what Dr. Anna Bloomer, a New York specialist in diseases of women and children, of 208 West Ninety-second street, had to say today when asked to comment on the news of Dr. Vernon M. Cady, who believes that the real "Who's Who in America," according to the laws of eugenics, in being compiled at the eugenics records office at Cold Springs Harbor, New York.

"If human beings could be raised like animals, then I would say that the study of eugenics would bring about good marriages," continued Dr. Bloomer. "The offspring of a couple who have exercised discretion, and who have examined the mental and physical conditions which surrounded our forefathers will naturally be a genius, but how many men and women, who care one another devotedly would permit the faults of their ancestors to step between them and happiness in this world?"

Eugenics Will Rob Heart.

"It is safe to say that a manly man would marry his choice, and disregard the remarks made by Dr. Cady. Where can one find a man possessed of sound physique and high mentality? There are exceptions, but very few. Brains and brawn seldom travel hand in hand, and therefore I say Dr. Cady's plan is impracticable."

"Can we afford to rob the heart of every consideration? If so, then practical eugenics will in time breed a line of geniuses for our country. No doubt Dr. Cady bases his remarks on statistics, but we must remember how many misrepresentations are made by the public at large when the question of hereditary disease in past generations is discussed."

"Happiness in the home should be the first consideration of every couple contemplating marriage. To a certain extent hereditary conditions cannot be avoided. Notwithstanding the fact that a man's ancestors were possessed with high ideals, probably some member of that family contracted a disease through dissipation of some sort. Suppose he was the father of a girl, the picture of health. Do you consider it fair for the man of her choice to rob her of the happiness she so ardently looks forward to? I think not."

Nearly one-fourth of the boys and girls who enter the American public schools reach the high school. The boy of today is almost as advanced as that of the college of a few years ago.

POWERS ASK TURKEY TO MAKE REFORMS

Demand That Christians Be Admitted to Freedom and Consideration

PARIS, Oct. 14.—Turkey's promises of reforms have remained a dead letter, say the Balkan allies, according to a synopsis of the reply to the representations of the powers, which was given today in a semi-official note. Therefore, the Balkan states believe it is their duty to ask the Ottoman government directly to make the solemn engagements contained in the note attached by the allies.

They ask Turkey to grant without delay the following reforms and to promise to apply them within six months with the assistance of the great powers and the Balkan states: The division of the provinces of European Turkey into ethnical circumscriptions.

The naming of Belgian or Swiss Christian governors. The equality of schools of whatever faith.

The equality of representation in the Turkish parliament.

The admission of Christians into every branch of administration of empire.

The formation of Christian military divisions.

The reforms to be put into execution by a commission of Christians and Mussulmans under the auspices of representatives of the powers.

The enumeration of the reforms is preceded by a demand that Turkey demobilize the army.

SUPREME COURT DECIDES BOND ISSUE IS INVALID

DENVER, Oct. 14.—By refusing a rehearing in the Aurora bond suit case, the state court of appeals decided today that $85,000 of the $150,000 bond issue is invalid and that the taxpayers shall not be required to pay this amount. The suit dates back 14 years, when the present town of Aurora, then known as the town of Fletcher, issued the bonds for the purpose of constructing a water plant. The plant was built but never became serviceable. The bonds were taken up by Louis A. Hayden and several others, including Amy Hunt Chiles.

Thirteen years ago litigation was started by the bondholders to secure payment. William A. Bryans, at present assistant city attorney of Denver, was engaged to conduct the case in behalf of the town of Aurora, and recently the court of appeals handed down an opinion invalidating $85,000 of the bonds.

A case involving the balance of the issue is pending in the United States circuit court of appeals.

DEMOCRATS SPENT UPWARDS $400,000

Thomas Fortune Ryan Was Big Contributor to National Fund This Year

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Upwards of $400,000 was expended in the efforts of Gov. Woodrow Wilson, Guy Judson Harmon and Representative Oscar W. Underwood to secure the Democratic presidential nomination this year, according to testimony today by William McCormick before the Senate contributions committee. His wife, William McCormick, accounted for $208,193.

Of this sum, $5,800 was contributed according to Mr. McCormick by Cleveland S. Dodge and Princeton friends. It developed that the "friends" were Cyrus H. McCormick of the International Harvester company, David B. Jones, Thomas D. Jones and Edward W. Sheldon, all of whom had been trustees when Mr. Wilson was president of Princeton.

Ryan contributed $12,000.

Of the $159,946 expended in the interests of Governor Harmon, Hugh L. Nichols, lieutenant governor of that state, told the committee that $77,000 was contributed by Thomas Fortune Ryan. Mr. Ryan also supplied $35,000 of a fund of $52,000 collected for the advancement of Representative Underwood's candidacy.

Lieutenant Governor Nichols told the committee that Governor Harmon contributed largely to his own campaign. He said that $122,000 had been collected, but that the expenditures amounted to $146,000 in the national campaign and that Governor Harmon supplied the difference.

In addition Mr. Nichols filed a statement of $1,948 collected and expended in Ohio. The principal contributors mentioned in Mr. Nichols' statement were:

R. M. Thompson, $3,000; Representative Francis Burton Harrison, $6,000; E. C. Wheeler, $8,500; J. P. Fanning, $5,000; William Dudley, $2,500; Thomas Ryan, $77,000, and James J. Hill, $16,000.

WILL ERECT MECKER MILL TO TAKE CARE OF CROPS

MECKER, Colo., Oct. 14.—For the first time in the history of the White River valley the local market has proved too limited to handle the immense crop of wheat, rye and barley raised here this year, and as dozens of the ranchers of the valley now have practically all of their grain on hand, as a result, it has been determined, by the dry farmers to erect a mill on their own and hereafter market their product on the outside.

They ask Turkey to grant without delay the following reforms and to promise to apply them within six months with the assistance of the great powers and the Balkan states: The division of the provinces of European Turkey into ethnical circumscriptions.

The naming of Belgian or Swiss Christian governors.

The equality of schools of whatever faith.

PRIEST TAKEN IN AIRSHIP TO MAN ON BATTLEFIELD

PARIS, Oct. 14.—Extremeunction was administered to a dying man for the first time by a priest rushing to the scene in an aeroplane, according to a dispatch received from Morocco. Aviator Breguet, with the troops fighting the warlike Tuareg tribe, was the hero of this first use of a flying machine for such a purpose. Colonel Largeot, commanding some French troops, was mortally wounded in a brush with the Tuaregs just before they were repulsed and fled. Largeot was a Catholic and expressed a dying wish to receive extremeunction, but the priest was 125 miles from the skirmish field. Flying over the conflict's territory, he made the trip in safety. The priest unhesitatingly stepped to his place beside the brave flier and was taken racing to the dying man, just in time.

FALLING IN LINE

A RECENT visitor to Colorado Springs stated that a poll of one of the precincts in Kit Carson County gave Roosevelt one hundred and twenty-one votes, Wilson fourteen, Taft two and Debs one. While this may seem, to the old parties, somewhat out of proportion, yet the fact remains that all over Colorado the sentiment is coming to this very point. The campaign is one particularly of education. Whenever Roosevelt literature and the platform and propaganda of the third party is brought to the attention of the voter and some thought or consideration given it, the result is always the same way a vote for the Progressive Party.

All over the United States the same story is being repeated. Heretofore political parties have based their propaganda upon questions purely commercial. They have forgotten the better things which go to make or unmake government and it remained for Mr. Roosevelt with his positive force and keen grasp of the situation to bring before the people the features which, in a way, they had realized were demanded but could not centralize upon.

When one stops to consider that one-half of our industrial chaos where one class is arrayed against the other, grows out of a false understanding regarding these conditions, he is surprised that this matter has not been given consideration before. The Progressive Party plan would have a tendency to eliminate the strife that has existed between capital and labor.

It would place the affairs of government upon a higher and broader plan. In the past the corporations and special interests, represented by paid lobbyists in the legislature and in congress, have come to feel that in order to protect their interests they must make a continuous and perpetual fight.

On the other hand those who toil have been led to believe that there could be no happy medium between capital and labor.

At this time the Roosevelt platform steps in and gives notice to both sides that there is a measure of equal justice for each side. It will prove a relief to capital and a relief to labor. Originally the special interests began the pursuit of policies in order that they might gain strength and make politics pay them a dividend.

Time has proven the folly of attempting to make such a condition permanent. The people are awake and with this awakening will come a cessation of all these hostilities which have had a great tendency to disturb conditions and leave the world of capital as well as the world of labor in a chaotic and unsettled condition.

The people who are seeking better government—which means a better chance for themselves and for their posterity—will acclaim the entrance of the Roosevelt propaganda with generous cheer. There is no reason why there should be such a gulf or chasm between classes in this country. The one is dependent upon the other. The people of a great majority of them are dependent upon the success of both.

In former years labor has tried to force capital to fix the highest wage possible.

In retaliation, capital has endeavored to compel labor to take the lowest wage possible. There has been a clear and distinct line of cleavage.

This condition has brought about strikes, lockouts and general confusion. Strikes in the great coal fields have advanced the price of coal many dollars per ton. Workmen have been idle. Capital was also idle. The consumer, who, by all the laws of logic, occupied the position of the innocent bystander in a street duel, was really the one who suffered. He paid two prices for his coal. Capital realized a less profit. Labor was without employment and yet the general result was bad so far as the consumer was concerned.

This is used simply as an illustration to convey the idea of the fallacy of the method employed in the past. The Roosevelt theory will undo much of this friction and leave the people in a position where, with the plan of social and industrial justice, these ruling elements can be brought together and with every fellow helping the other fellow the sum total will be entirely different.

JOHNSON THE MAN

GOV. HIRAM W. JOHNSON of California, Progressive candidate for the Vice Presidency, has been called "a man. Every person who has met Governor Johnson has found him to be a man and has proceeded straightway to say so. In his capacity as Governor, Johnson has acquired the reputation of a fighting man. It took him just three months after his election in January 1911, to throw the Southern Pacific Railway out of the politics of the state of California. For this reason Governor Johnson has been called a fighting man. He has done a number of other things in his state which made him deserve this appellation. He has fought for labor. He has fought to give the average man an average man's rights. He has made the corporations of his state pay their just taxes.

It has been estimated that in the brief year and three-quarters since he was elected Governor of the state, that he has saved the people of California in railroad tolls alone nearly four million dollars. He has challenged the exorbitant rates charged by the express companies.

Sam Blythe, the political expert, recently met and then wrote about Governor Johnson. Sam Blythe wrote: "He has the courage of his convictions; has this man, Theodore Roosevelt. There is one grand thing about Hiram, just as there is about the Colonel. Whenever you ask in California about Hiram, saying casually, as if you did not care much, but merely inquired for the purpose of keeping the conversation going, 'What sort of a chap is this man Johnson, anyhow?' you are informed explicitly that Hiram Johnson is the grandest little patriot who ever trod the soil of California or any other of our choice collection of imperial commonwealths, the greatest exemplar of the reform in politics and the most militant crusader the sun of San Francisco ever shone upon or the fog of San Francisco ever fogged upon; or, conversely, you are told definitely that Hiram Johnson is the biggest fraud, the worst demagogue, the most selfish of all self-seeking politicians of the day, insincere and anarchistic and a said affair.

He is no wishy-washy, compromising person. If you are for him, get in line, if you are against him, fall out, for the middle of the road is unexplored, and useless territory so far as Johnson is concerned."

must vote upon this fall, creates a public utility board of three members, to be appointed by the governor—one for a term of two years, one for a term of four years, and one for a term of six years. Each member shall draw the sum of $5,000 per annum, and the court may appoint such employee as it may deem necessary, and can pay the salaries it deems sufficient. No person shall be eligible as a member of the court who, within five years previous to his appointment, shall have been a stockholder, bondholder, attorney or actively interested in any public utility corporation. All state commissions or boards exercising any of the powers herein conferred upon this court are abolished and laws creating them repealed.

Section B. of the proposed amendment reads as follows:

"said court shall have exclusive jurisdiction, and it shall have full power and it shall be its duty to make and enforce reasonable rates for every public service corporation within this state, and reasonable rules and regulations for the performance of such service and for the health and safety of patrons and employees. But such rate shall not be higher than will produce the annual cost of operation, the annual cost of maintenance, and the annual taxes, and not to exceed a reasonable per centum per annum upon the actual cash value of the physical value of the plants actually engaged in such service, and no other item other than the four just named shall be considered in fixing the rate."

All proceedings of the court must be held in the public. Any appeal from the court must be direct to the supreme court of the state, and appeals can only be made on questions of law and not on questions of fact. No reversal of the public utility court except by a vote of five members of the supreme court.

As a husband and the father of children, the foremost French aviator says that he has no right to court death, and so he chooses the safer way by flying as fast as he can: he hopes to be able, in a monoplane yet to be made, to attain a speed of 250 kilometers or about 155 miles an hour. M. Vedrines disposes of the idea that control of an aeroplane projected through the air at express speed must be difficult, by saying that his experience is that the higher the speed the greater the stability of the machine. "As I go 10 times faster than the wind," he says, "I am who trouble the wind; well, it is my turn." Brave men have ascended with M. Vedrines, and he has convinced them of the security, comfort and exhilaration of being propelled through space "like a bullet." "Once in the air," says this daring and joyous soul, "the faster one goes the less one needs to touch the controls."

The sceptic seems to be justified in asking M. Vedrines how it is that speed means safety, he came to grief at St. Léon's and lay in the hospital between life and death for a long time. His explanation is that his motor stopped on account of turning off the gasoline tap by vibration, which might have happened if his speed had been much less, and he had to make an awkward descent on a railroad track and so doing came into contact with a freight car. The sceptic ought to be silenced by a fact so great in the security of speed that M. Vedrines, whose wounds are not quite closed, expects to fly faster than ever in the international competition next week. "I am certain and I repeat," he says, "that the future of aviation rests on speed."

Butte is a small outcropping of Hades in the mountains of Montana. It has, however, been so greatly mitigated by its patient inmates during the last few years that people now live there from choice.

Butte is not the largest city in the country, but claims to be the largest for its size. It is situated a mile above the sea and is surrounded by copper mines and smelters which produce an atmosphere in which mosquitoes, flies and tomato plants cannot live. When a man has successfully mastered the art of Butte and making its return to the president of the senate, then the two houses of congress, acting separately, would have to decide which set is entitled to be counted. If they failed to agree, the set whose election was certified by Governor Stubbs would be counted.

When the congress is in joint session it cannot be dissolved until the count is completed and the results announced. If any session is brought up which requires separate action, recess may be taken until the next calendar day at 10 o'clock. But if the session extends beyond five days, then there can be no more recesses until the count is finished and a deadlock exciting any all-night filibuster, in history might ensue.

The presiding officer is forbidden to declare any man elected. All he can do is to announce the state of the vote which announcement shall be deemed a sufficient declaration of the persons if any, elected. If there is no choice and the election goes to the house and to the senate, the practice has been to announce that fact and adjourn the joint session.

In First Count, 12 Electors.

It is interesting to follow the counting idea up through the years of American political history. The first count was held in New York, with 12 senators present. John Langdon was elected president pro tempore of the senate for the sole purpose of opening the certificates and counting the votes in the presence of the house.

The house was advised that the senate was ready to proceed with that duty and asked to meet it in the senate chamber. Mr. Langdon counted the votes and no voice was raised in protest.

It was said on every side when the constitution was turned out as a finished product, that the best place of power in the whole structure was the electoral system for choosing the president.

The friends of the great instrument pointed with pride to the fact that there was one clause in it that even its enemies did not disapprove.

But time has shown that what was regarded as the strongest safeguard of the liberties of the people has most often proved the greatest menace to the integrity of the Union. Once it was amended, and several times laws have been enacted to reinforce its provisions, and its whole spirit has been transformed through the will of the people, and yet it is still an unsatisfactory way of choosing a president when those great crises come where a vote of two decides which of the great political parties shall for fours years assume the responsibilities of executive government.

Its weakness lies not so much in the method of casting the vote, but mainly in the method of counting it. There are so many problems that have not been

HENNING PLEADS GUILTY TO CHARGE OF FORGERY

August Henning, arrested Sunday at Palmer Lake on a charge of forgery, pleaded guilty in Justice Dunnington's court yesterday afternoon and was bound over to the district court. In default of $1,000 bond he was remanded to the county jail.

Henning is accused of forging a check for $100 on the First State bank of Fort Stockton, Tex., over the signature of Robert Grisham, foreman of a crew of Rio Grande laborers at Palmer Lake, by whom he was employed as timekeeper. According to the story he told in court, Henning last June asked Grisham for employment at Palmer Lake, and was given work as a common laborer. He was finally promoted to the position of timekeeper, and Grisham, the foreman, then shared his bunk with him.

Last Saturday night a letter addressed to Grisham was received at the Palmer Lake postoffice. It is alleged that from the letter Henning learned that Grisham had an account in the Texas bank.

Then, it is alleged, Henning returned to the bunk, opened Grisham's valise, removed a check book, and forged the signature of Robert Grisham to a check for $100 payable to the order of Bruce Willis, a merchant.

Henning, who posed as a former baseball player and associate of Walter Johnson, the American league pitcher, ordered a complete baseball outfit from Willis and tendered the check in payment. Willis refused to cash the check, as he recognized that the writing was not Grisham's. He also discovered an error in the spelling of Grisham's first name, which appeared "Robert" on the face of the check, but which was correct on the endorsement.

SPRINGS PEOPLE MAY GO ON PUEBLO SPECIAL

Bound for Denver to attend the Festival of Mountain and Plain, a trainload of Pueblo boosters will pass through this city at 8:40 o'clock this morning, over the Santa Fe. The Pueblo Commerce club will be on the train, practically in a body, and a brass band will be brought along. The train on which they are traveling is a special, but it will stop here. A good many Colorado Springs people are planning to go to Denver on the train.

MISS EDITH DOUGLAS, a graduate of Colorado College in 1911 and well known in Colorado Springs, may see many stirring scenes in the war between the Balkan states and Turkey, as she is stationed as a missionary at Sofia, Bulgaria, where the Bulgarian troops are mobilizing.

Miss Douglas is in a small mission school in Sofia where there are only a few English-speaking people, and friends here fear that the little group of Americans may be in danger. The Bulgarian strongholds are in the neighborhood of Sofia, and definite news of the movement of troops will be carried daily in press dispatches.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

Fifty-five new members were added to the 650 department of the Y. M. C. A. in the membership campaign which ended Saturday night. The gold team won a close contest, getting 28 new members to the purple team's 27.

A banquet was given the winners by the losers Saturday night, in the boys' rooms, at which time Dr. W. W. Flora presented Gerow Simmons with a tennis racket for bringing in the most members, the lad having secured five new boys.

First Gray Hair Sign of Age. Easy Way to Restore the Color

A harmless remedy, made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to natural color. The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color and lustre, is just as important as to care for teeth to keep them from discoloring. Why spend money for cosmetics and creams to improve the complexion, and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion? Of the two, it is easier to preserve the natural color and beauty of the hair than to have a poor complexion.

All that is necessary is the occasional use of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of common garden sage and sulphur, combined with other valuable remedies for dry, harsh, faded hair, dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. After a few applications of this simple, harmless remedy, your hair will gradually be restored to its natural color. In a short time the dandruff will be removed, and your hair will no longer come out but will start to grow as Nature intended it should.

Don't neglect your hair, for it goes further than anything else to make or mar your good looks. You can buy this remedy at your drug store for fifty cents a bottle, and your druggist will give you money back if you are not satisfied after using. Purchase a bottle today. You will never regret it when you realize the difference it will make in your appearance. Agents, Robinson Drug Co. Adv.

Mrs. L. C. Hasler, Grand Island, Neb., has something she wishes to say about Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. "My three children had a very severe attack of whooping cough, and suffered greatly. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and it did them more good than anything I gave them. I am glad to recommend it." The Robinson Drug Co. Adv.

M. H. Stauffer, Progressive, filed acceptance of nomination yesterday with the county clerk, for county commissioner from the Third district. William Newman filed withdrawal of nomination for justice of the peace on the Democratic ticket.

Holland, like most European countries, insists upon religious training in the public schools, but her system is described as "non-denominational." Definite religious instruction is given, but the children are not allowed to be separated according to "confessions." Secular schools exist, but they are essentially private institutions, and make no claim on the state for support.
